Corporate finance for the pre-industrial world began to emerge in the Italian city-states and the low countries of Europe from the 15th century. Public markets for investment securities developed in the Dutch Republic during the 17th century. By the early 1800s, London acted as a center of corporate finance for companies and projects around the world, which innovated new forms of lending and ...

Investing means buying an asset that actually creates products and services and cashflow for an extended period of time. Like a piece of a profitable business or a rentable piece of real estate. An investment is something that has intrinsic value – that is, it would be worth owning from a financial perspective, even if you could never sell it. Now, with that moral sermon out of the way, we ...
