A spreadsheet is an interactive computer application for organization, analysis and storage of data in tabular form. Spreadsheets developed as computerized analogs of paper accounting worksheets. The program operates on data entered in cells of a table. Each cell may contain either numeric or text data, or the results of formulas that automatically calculate and display a value based on the ...

Test Statistics The stats program works out the p value either directly for the statistic you're interested in (e.g. a correlation), or for a test statistic that has a 1:1 relationship with the effect statistic. A test statistic is just another kind of effect statistic, one that is easier for statisticians and computers to handle. Common test statistics are t, F, and chi-squared.

Statistics add realism to your speech. It's okay to talk about big ideas in abstract terms, but you also have to make it real. Numbers and facts are one way to staple your speech arguments to reality (thus boosting logos). For example, claiming that correctly setting your tire pressure will increase your fuel mileage is one thing.
